

OUTSTANDING AIRMEN OF THE YEAR 2010

AIRMAN OF THE YEAR

SENIOR AIRMAN FRANK LOUCKS

Senior Airman Frank Loucks V: 179th Maintenance Squadron. Airman Loucks is a journeyman propulsion mechanic. He deployed to Operation Enduring Freedom and Coronet Oak and was responsible for inspection of servicing of all assigned mission aircraft. His deployed supervisor recognized him for being a “positive, motivated professional, dedicated to quality, excelling in ability and having enthusiasm and pride in service.” He is majoring in mechanical engineering at Akron University in which he is regularly on the Dean’s list. Airman Loucks is a lifetime Scout and earned the honor of Eagle Scout. He is active as a volunteer supporting the Cleveland food bank and supports cancer research through various family sponsored fund raising efforts that raise more than $3000 annually.

