

OUTSTANDING AIRMEN OF THE YEAR 2010

SENIOR NCO OF THE YEAR

MASTER SERGEANT CHRISTENE CRAWFORD

Master Sergeant Christene E. Crawford: 179th Services Squadron Craftsman. Sergeant Crawford volunteered as UTC leader and deployed to Al Dhafra AB from June to Nov 2009, fulfilling AEF requirements. She managed 29 Airmen and 54 TCNs, serving more than 2,000 personnel, 4 meals per day in an austere environment. Sergeant Crawford assisted in the receipt and security of more than $200,000 in equipment inventory for all the wing's dining facilities and is responsible for the inventory of more than 25,000 MREs and $350,000 in assets. Sergeant Crawford earned a Bachelor of Electrical Engineering Degree from Cleveland State University and completed her CCAF Associates Degree in Hotel, Restaurant & Fitness Center Management. She is an active participant in the National Society for Black Engineers & the Society of Women engineers and organized the collection of canned/dry goods for the Harvest for Hunger charity food drive.

