

2011 Mansfield Lahm Military Families Scholarship Recipients

The following individuals were the 2011 recipients of the Mansfield Lahm Military Families (MLMF) $750.00 academic scholarships.

Ms. Elizabeth Holsopple, daughter of Maj Kent Holsopple, 179th LRS, recently graduated from Centerburg High School in Centerburg. Ellie plans on attending Wright State University and pursuing a degree in Early Childhood Education.

Ms. Michelle Jones, wife of CMSgt Larry Jones, 200th Red Horse Det 1, is currently a freshman attending Mt Vernon Nazarene University pursuing a degree in Nursing.

Ms. Cortney Mruk, daughter of TSgt David Mruk, 179th MXS, has recently graduated from Revere High School in Akron. Cortney will be attending Kent State University pursuing a degree in Middle Childhood Education.

Ms. Sarah Nagy, daughter of MSgt Stephanie Nagy, 200th Red Horse Det 1, recently graduated from Buckeye Local Schools in Medina. Sarah plans on attending Ashland University and pursuing a degree in Dietetics.

Ms. Monica Clevenger, daughter of MSgt Beth Kilgore, 200th Red Horse Det 1, plans on attending Malone University and pursuing a degree in Child Psychology.

Mr. Taylor Thomas, son of Lt Col Todd Thomas, 179th OG, recently graduated from Lexington High School. Taylor plans on attending Miami of Ohio University and studying Dentistry.