

AIRMAN & FAMILY READINESS PROGRAM

179th Airlift Wing

Faline M. Rowland
419-520-6600
faline.rowland@ang.af.mil

*Programs, Events or Services Coordinated by your
Airman & Family Readiness
Program Office*

Some Key Services of the Program

- Hero Camps for Kids
- Transition Assistance Program (TAP)
- AF Personnel Accountability and Assessment System (AFPAAS)
- Emergency Family Assistance Control Center (EFACC)
- Basic Transition & Employment Management (BTEM)
- Joint Family Support Assistance Program (JFSAP)
- Family Events throughout the year

Information and Referral Services

- Employment Assistance
- Military One Source
- Personal Financial Counseling
- Transition Assistance Program (TAP)
- VA Benefits & Healthcare Counselors
- Pre-Separation Counseling
- Regional Inter-Service Family Assistance Committee (RISFAC)
- *Deployment Cycle Support –
Pre & Post Deployment*

Airman & Family Readiness Program

The Family Readiness Program is a Commander's Program designed to enhance readiness and establish a sense of community and well being

Core Competencies

Information & Referral

Deployment Cycle Support

Community Outreach & Cooperative Interface

Volunteer communication, direction & guidance

Readiness: Personal, Family, Unit & Community

Life Skills, Education, Consultation & Transition Guidance

“The Total Force Resource”

